

Jenna D'Annunzio

Holistic Business, Mindset & Success Coach

There are two sides to every coin. Most business coaches and programs aim to motivate you by instilling specific narratives, systems, strategies, numbers, revenue...all the external factors within business.

Whereas those are all critical to apply and master, when you only focus on one side of the coin, we are often left feeling burned out, complacent, overwhelmed and frustrated. The constant chase for the next big thing; the struggle to identify what tasks are important to maintain momentum...it's unmotivating and unfulfilling.

This is where a holistic approach comes into play. Jenna sees entrepreneurship not just as a means to an end but a platform for personal and collective transformation. Her approach focuses on the ultimate shift from Scarcity to Prosperity through the transformation of your Beliefs, which drives your Behavior, which in turn will then transform your Results. This is the most thorough means of increasing lasting productivity and creating favorable conditions to building a life and business you love.

Jenna knows how to light up a room and get the group engaged in a quick and welcoming way! The first time I saw Jenna speak was actually the first time I met her, and I was extremely impressed at how quickly she connected with the room and brought the group together. She does a phenomenal job at creating a space where everyone is ready and willing to participate.

Jenna was my first business coach and made the biggest difference in my practice and my life. She helped to put into words the root of the frustrations and challenges I was facing, then helped to show me ways to address and manage how to overcome them. My life is 1,000x happier as a result and the things that caused most of my problems I am better suited to cope and manage. This allows me to be the best version of myself for me, my family, and my clients.
